

Golfers,

Attached is the final payout sheet for our tournament. I apologize for the delay in getting this to you, I just haven't had time to set at my computer and get this done until now.

We had another great time at Perdido Key this year. The weather was outstanding except for Sunday, when we were rained out for only the second time in the long history of this tournament. We got the opportunity to see friends that we see annually at this event, and we met new friends as we competed and socialized at Perdido Key. The golf courses were in great shape making the competition a greater joy to be in.

We raised $2209 for Warriors for Freedom this year. Thanks to our sponsors and you for your generous support of this charity. Thanks to all those that helped make this event so successful, to include on the golf courses, the hospitality area, and the banquet. It was my observation that everyone had a great time doing this, if there is anyone that has an idea to make this event better, please share with me.

Our next Travel'n'Golf tournament will be in Huntsville in mid-April. I won't start on this tournament until January, so look for a flyer to be coming out in early 2016. We will have a number of out of town golfers participating in this tournament, and since many of us live in the Huntsville area, please consider offering your homes to house the out of town players. This will give us an opportunity to show southern hospitality at its finest. Anything we can do to offset expenses of others will be greatly appreciated.

Our next trip to the Gulf Coast will be from October 31-November 6, 2016. The flyer will be put out late summer on this event. It is my intent to compete the condos in the area for our lodging and tournament headquarters. We will likely not stay at Sandy Key. If we compete, I am hoping to get the best lodging price that we can get, so please hold off on making your reservations until we get the lodging issue settled. It is fine if you have other places to stay, but our negotiating leverage is increased the more rooms we are able to book at the building we contract with, so if you need a place to stay there please consider the condo we select for our contract. I plan to have this worked by spring, more will be coming out as we decide where we are moving the tournament headquarters.

I look forward to more and better Travel'n'Golf tournaments and events, I hope you do too.

Dwight
