

Golfers,

Attached is the current status of entries to the 2017 Perdido Key Tournament. If you have sent your entry in, please review for accuracy. If your name is shaded in pink, that means that you have been identified as someone's partner but you have not submitted an entry. If you are shaded in pink, please let me know via email if you intend to play this year or not as soon as possible.

I have completed my move to Decatur, so please do not send any entries to my Madison address any longer. If you have already sent your entry to the Madison address, it is OK because the Post Office is forwarding my mail from there. I am going to Perdido Key tomorrow, so if you are mailing an entry please send it to my Florida address:

Dwight Potter
6582 Carlinga Drive
Pensacola, FL 32507

Any of my three addresses will work, but the Florida address will get to me the quickest so it is the best one to use.

If you are sending me an entry, please let me know via email to;

apjpdad@charter.net

This is a new email address. My old "knology" email has been disconnected and no longer works.

Thanks for all your inputs. See you soon at Perdido Key.

Dwight
