

Hello Golfers!

We have a new email address for BEGA Travel 'n golf correspondence. It is begatravelngolf@charter.net. Thanks in advance for updating your contact info.

Mike and I want to share a few tournament event details with you. Here is a link to the St. Augustine spring event with a wrap up note that cannot possibly explain the excitement that most everyone had about this trip.. If you missed this event, you missed a treat!

Many of you have already started asking about Perdido Key. The tournament week is Oct29-Nov4. Mike is finalizing details on courses and we will be getting an entry form out to you by next week.

We have negotiated condo rates for Sandy Key and Beach Colony resort. We need 30 rentals to get a free hospitality room. So please help us out and consider booking with Perdido Realty and tell Valerie or Charlotte that you are with BEGA. See the attached note from Perdido Realty.

Finally, I wanted to give you a tentative look at a calendar of events. Be thinking about your personal calendar and how you can fit in some of these golfing trips. We would love for you to invite a friend and come join us!
